ORLANDO, Fla. (November 11, 2019) – Universal Orlando Resort's eighth hotel, Universal's Endless Summer Resort – Dockside Inn and Suites, will open on March 17, 2020.

An extra-affordable Value category hotel, Dockside Inn and Suites will join its sister property at Universal's Endless Summer Resort, Surfside Inn and Suites, which opened in June 2019. Dockside Inn and Suites will add 2,050 guest rooms to the Universal Orlando hotel portfolio by the end of 2020, featuring both standard rooms and spacious 2-Bedroom Suites – which can accommodate up to six people. At Dockside Inn and Suites, guests will unwind in a carefree escape that perfectly blends the cool, calm feeling of a beach retreat.

With rates starting at just $85 per night, Universal's Endless Summer Resort combines the quality guests have come to expect from a Universal Orlando hotel with an extra-affordable price point – creating an experience that is unmatched in the Orlando area. Plus, hotel guests receive exclusive benefits, including Early Park Admission, complimentary transportation to and from the theme parks and more, creating a complete and seamless vacation experience. Dockside Inn and Suites will become the destination's eighth property in partnership with Loews Hotels & Co, offering Universal Orlando guests a hotel choice for every style and budget.

Staying at a Universal Orlando hotel puts guests right in the action of three award-winning theme parks, including Universal's Islands of Adventure – recently named TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice for #1 Amusement Park in the World for the fifth year in a row. With the value and convenience added by staying at Dockside Inn and Suites, guests can enjoy more time experiencing some of the most exciting and immersive theme park experiences, including The Wizarding World of Harry Potter, Despicable Me Minion Mayhem, Jurassic Park River Adventure, TRANSFORMERS: The Ride-3D, and The Bourne Stuntacular – which makes its debut at Universal Studios Florida in spring 2020.
